

Prayers of the People for the 6th Sunday after Pentecost

Let us put our trust in God as we pray. When I say, “O God,” you may say, “We trust You.”

That You may make your church, and this community of St. Francis, to be a place of peace and refuge for everyone. Give us the wisdom and faith to be peaceful people... O God,

We trust You.

For leaders and prophets that will teach the nations of the world ways of peace, instead of war, and for resources that will teach families and individuals how to live at peace... O God,

We trust You.

For the safety and spiritual growth of all campers, staff, and volunteers at Camp Stoney... O God,

We trust You.

For the means and knowledge to help the people and animals who have been hurt by the wildfires in Ruidoso... O God,

We trust You.

For your healing power and presence in our lives, and for the ability to help others to heal... O God,

We trust You.

For your Spirit to empower us to create a community and world where every person is loved, welcomed, and honored, especially our LGBTQ+ siblings... O God,

We trust You.

For your continued grace and work in the lives of those have passed from this life to the next... O God,

We trust You.

For your abundant provision – financial, physical, and spiritual – for this parish, that we may continue to do the work you call us to do... O God,

We trust You.
